Dear Parents/Guardians,

As you may be aware, last year we invited parents into school on the last Tuesday of each half term to read with their children in classrooms. Due to positive feedback, we are planning to keep this running for this academic year; however, we are planning to slightly alter the way in which we run this.

On the last Tuesday of each half term, we would like to invite you into school to collect your child/children and take them into our school hall to read. We will provide a selection of engaging books or you are welcome to bring your own. We will also be selling hot chocolate and cookies for a price of £1. We hope that this will be an enjoyable experience for all and will instil a love of reading into the children. We truly believe that children seeing adults read creates positivity around reading and inspires them to read themselves.

Our first parent reading event will be on Tuesday the 16th of October due to a Halloween disco being held on the Tuesday of the last week. Parents can enter school via the Main Reception at 2.45 and then collect their children. At 3.10pm children will be taken back to their class and parents can collect as normal outside their child's classroom.

Reception children are welcome to attend the event, however this will take place in the Reception building where there will also be cookies and hot chocolate available.

We hope to see you there.

CALLING TALENTED STORY TELLERS!

If you are a keen story teller, writer or illustrator and would like to volunteer and share this with a group of children, we would love to have you in school! Please let us know by calling the school office or having a chat to us on the reading afternoon.
